STRIKES.

We notice that the laboring classes in the Eastern States have, lately, been doing some extensive striking against capitalists. We have had the misfortune of witnessing two such unfortunate affairs, and know a little of what they mean and the suffering and hard feeling produced by them. All industry is paralyzed; money is scarce; food high, and no told misery on every side. It is the poorer people who receive the blunt of all this—the capitalists can generally afford to sit back in their ease and luxury and let the poor starve into subjection. With the one it is work or starve; with the other "My demands or quit." With this unequal footing the chances for success of the poor is but slight. Strikes are at best but unfortunate affairs, and the experiences of the past has been that the capitalists have got the better in nine out of ten, and so it will continue to remain. If a few representative men of each side were but to talk their grievances over dispassionately and with a desire to be just all around, the scenes now being enacted in Pennsylvania would not occur. Labor and capital are mutually dependent upon each other and can not thrive while in antagonism.

When Brigham Young is so sick that he can't hold his head up, 37 women stand around to take their turns feeding him with a spoon. Ill health makes the old man irritable, and his style of orders to those attending angels is affected a good deal in consequence. "Come, get around quick there No. 7. Stir your stumps, No. 16. What do you suppose I married you for No. 24. Waltz up lively, No. 27. Who gives you chicken soup three times a day and a new bonnet every month, lazy bones? Numbers 33 and 34, stop that jawing and pay attention when your turn comes." It is thought that this sort of thing does more to keep up the old saint's spirits and his soul and body together than all the doctors could do.

The Brooklyn bridge is to be beaten before it is finished. Its rival, which is to be constructed over the Frith of Forth, Scotland, will be the largest in the world. The height will be one hundred and fifty feet, and the number of spans nearly one hundred. The great span in the center is to be fifteen hundred feet or nearly one-third of a mile in width, and smaller spans one hundred and fifty feet. It will cost about $10,000,000.

The prepared pages for country newspapers, known as "patent outside," sometimes make ridiculous blunders. Not long ago the cable announced the bad news that "the Pope has had another child," and shortly afterwards came from forty-seven country newspapers with patent outside, containing the announcement that "The Pope has had another child."

If the coal fields of Tonale, Utah, open up as well as the owners anticipate, it is highly probable that the Central Pacific Railroad Company will build a branch road down the west side of Great Salt Lake. The company have already expended over $200,000 in fruitless search for coal.

A BASEFUL Connecticut drug clerk was puzzled the other day by having one of the female jubilee singers ask him for "flesh-colored corn-plasters," but after some thoughts he handed out black, and dodged under the counter for safety.

A KENTUCKY paper thinks that a country which is eaten out by grasshoppers in the summer and where whisky freezes solid in the winter might be a disadvantageously left for the exclusive occupation of the noble red man and the prairie dog.

The largest and finest assortment of English and American prints at J. Prescott's.

WIT AND HUMOR.

Every State has its discouragements. John C. Abbott is writing a history of Maine.

"Evangelical" is now the proper term for speech which a politician makes when he steps down and out.

A Detroit photographer says he'd rather fight a tiger with a snow-shovel than see a baby come into his gallery.

Ambitious young gentlemen are commencing the study of law, in hopes of coming in as reserved counsel in the Beecher case.

A postal card picked up in the streets of Roseburg the other day bore this solemn appeal: "Dear Mary for love of God send me a pair of pants."

There'll be a damp had freshet this spring, when the snow starts. Better begin to practice running up the garret stairs.

To the author who wishes our opinion of his "Lines to the North Wind," we would say that it appears to be a lay-Boreas affair.

The beef is so poor of late that it has to be salted, peppered, and adorned with sliced onions before it is fit to throw out into the yard to the dog.

Talk about the poetry of motion, and sylph-like grace, but did you ever stand by and see a woman use a one-tined fork to flap a stove cover over.

A Chicago preacher has locked himself up in the fourth story, and draws his meals up with a bed-cord. He says they can't get up any slander about him.

A stranger who sat violently down on the pavement in front of the opera house on Saturday, jumped up and observed: "That's the kind of a man I am," and moved on.

The telegraph editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer has views. He calls Tracy's opening speech "Hifalutin Legal Hogwash and Stubbery. Sentimental Snazzillions about the White Souled Woman."

The difference between the sexes may be stated thus: "A man gives forty cents for a twenty-five cent thing he wants, and a woman gives twenty-five cents for a forty-cent thing she do sn't want."

The man who predicted a mild winter because the corn-husks were this, was found frozen to death in a corn-field the other day, a few miles from Dayton. They buried him close to the ground-log.

The Milwaukee News tells a touching tale of a Leavenworth woman who gave birth to four healthy babies, while the husband stood in the next room, slate in hand, mournfully chalking them down as fast as they were reported.

"Geology is all well enough in its ways," said Birkins, the other morning. "But it takes twice the science to understand getting into a pair of breeches when the lining in the legs is torn, that it does to permeate the Silurian or any other of the Paleozoic ages."

An exchange tells us that "A Philadelphia haberdasher advertises 'seasonal undergarments' for sale." This is simply an elaboration of the idea which the editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer has so long illustrated in changing his shirt semi-annually.

"My," said an intelligent, thoughtful boy, "I don't think Solomon was so rich as they say he was." "Why, my dear, what could have put that in your head?" "Why the Bible says he slept with his fathers; and I think if he had been so very rich, he would have had a bed of his own."

In Massachusetts it is customary for visitors to call on the editors when they are busiest, and tell stories and talk about old times in a most leisurely way; and if the paper is about going to press, and the printers are waiting for copy, they stay longer. We are happy to say that this is not the case in Connecticut.

A Western editor, thinking to stock his depleted larder, advertised "Poultry taken in exchange for advertising." The villainous compositor, seeing his opportunity to pay up a long-standing grudge, set it up "Postrd taken, etc."—and since that time the office boy has been clearing fifty cents a day from the waste paper man.

One Arthur Cavanaugh, of New Happon, Iowa, inserts this notice in local paper: "To any saloon keeper in Chickasaw county—You are hereby notified not to sell me any whisky, rum, ale of beer, or any spiritous liquors whatever; and in case that you do so, I will prosecute you to the full extent of the law."

AN OLD LEGEND.

The Californians tell of a great flood, or at least of a time when the whole country, with the exception of Mount Diablo and Reed Peak, was covered with water. There was a coyote on the peak, the only living thing the wide world over, and there was a single feather tossing about on the rippled water. The coyote was looking at the feather, and even as he looked, flesh and bones and other leathers came and joined themselves to the first and became an eagle. There was a stir on the waters, a rush of broad pinions, and before the widening circles reached island-hill, the bird stood beside the astonished coyote. The two came soon to be acquainted and to be good friends and they made occasional excursions together to the other hill, the eagle flying leisurely overhead while the coyote swam. After a time they began to feel lonely, so they crept men; and as the men multiplied the waters abated, till the dry land came to be much as it is at present.

Now, also, the Sacramento river and the San Joaquin began to find their way into the Pacific, through the mountains which, up to this time had stretched across the mouth of San Francisco bay. No Posidon clove the hills with his trident, as when the pleasant of Tempo was formed, but a strong earthquake tore the rock apart and opened the Golden Gate between the waters within and those without. Before this there had existed only two outlets for the drainage of the whole country; one was the Russian river, and the other the San Juan.—Bancroft's Native Races.

COMMITTEE OF INVITATION.

DR. A. E. SPINNEY.

WELL KNOWN throughout the country as a Pathologist and Physiologist, whose successful treatment of certain physical disabilities and functional derangements, have widely entitled him to the familiar recognition of the GREAT SPECIALIST, would respectfully inform the citizens of Virginia City, Nevada, and vicinity that he can be consulted at No. 188 South C street, Virginia, seven doors north of the French Drug Store, at his office, thus giving invalids an opportunity of ridding themselves, through his professional agency, of such constitutional annoyances and ailments as he claims to compass and to cure. Without entering into biographical details, it is sufficient to simply promulgate the fact that DR. SPINNEY'S earliest reputation may be traced back to his immigration and conduct of the Montreal (Canada East) Medical Institute. The regime of the English Pharmacopoeia is gauged by an elevated standard. An extended experience and an assiduous study of the varied phases of disease enables him to guarantee the assurance of success in the eradication of the multifarious chronic ailments incident to both sexes, such as Nervous Debility, Exhausted Vitality, Venereal Excesses, Marriage Incontinence, Chronic and General Affections.

TO THE LADIES.

DR. SPINNEY, while naturally impressed with the delicacy of the subject, feels no hesitancy in assuring them that, in conjunction with a competent knowledge of their various sufferings, such as Nervousness, Neuritis, Spinal Weakness, Loss of Appetite, Lassitude, Protruded Uteri, Retroversions or Displacement of the Womb, Vaginal Irregularities, Leucorrhoea, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, and the many petty, irritating distractions that almost invariably have their origin in the uterine region, afford them immediate relief.

YOUNG MEN.

Who may be suffering from the effects of youthful follies or indiscretion, will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit five hundred dollars for every case of seminal weakness or private disease of any kind or character which he misdiagnoses and fails to cure. He would, therefore, say to the unfortunate sufferer who may read this notice, that you are treading upon dangerous ground when you longer delay in seeking the proper remedy for your complaint. You may be in the first stage—remember you are approaching the last. If you are bordering upon the last, and are suffering some or all of the evil effects, remember that if you obstinately persist in procrastination, the time must come when the most skillful physicians can render you no assistance; when the door of hope will be closed against you; when an angel of mercy can bring you relief. In no case has the Doctor failed of success. Then let not despair work itself upon your imagination, but avail yourself of the beneficial results of his treatment before your case is beyond the reach of medical skill, or before grim death hurries you to a premature grave.

CURE AND BE HEALED.

It matters not what your trouble may be, come and let the Doctor examine your case. It will cost you nothing for consultation, so please call and satisfy yourself whether the Doctor understands your case. If he can cure you he will tell you so; if not, he will say so, for he will not undertake a cure unless he is confident of effecting a cure.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many of the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuation of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for; on examining the urinary deposits aropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin and milky hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

N.B.—Only an interview required in a majority of cases; influence of treatment can be conducted at home without interruption of business. No cases treated without a personal interview and physical examination. Office hours—10 to 1, 2 to 4, and 7 to 8. Consultation Free. Examination and advice, $5.

STOCK REPORT.

Morning Board. Table with 2 columns: Stock Name and Price. Includes items like 2005 100 lbs, 101 100 lbs, etc.

THE FAIR GROUNDS.—The work goes on bravely at the fair grounds. We have been there and taken notes of what is being done. Jack Frazer, who is "monarch of all he surveys" out there, is doing good work. The Judges' stand has been moved across to the south side, where it ought to have been in the first place. The grand stand will also be on that side. The grand entrance to the fair grounds is by an avenue sixty feet wide, which will be lined with cottonwood trees. All the land outside of the track will be sown with timothy and red top clover, which makes a good turf, and the land on the inside of the track is to be sown with alfalfa. One thousand trees are to be planted on the grounds. The hedges have been dug for them, and the trees have commenced to arrive, and will soon be put in place. Every rock on the place is to be removed, the land be thoroughly irrigated, so that Nature, when arrayed in her gorgeous attire of green begins to show herself, we shall all be proud of our fair grounds. The track itself will be put in much better condition, for it is the intention to make it by all odds the fastest track in the State. Everything will be in apple-pie order for the next State Fair.

THE RENO BRASS BAND.—We propose to say a good word or two for this home institution. The boys are entitled to it. They have just completed their new band room, located on the corner of Second street and West Avenue, in size 30x20, and admirably adapted for their purpose. The interior has been nicely papered and painted, and many handsome pictures grace the walls. The regular practice nights of the band are Monday and Thursday. The boys have improved wonderfully within the past year, and bid fair soon to take rank with some of the best of our sage brush bands. The members of the band are N. W. Roff (leader) who plays E flat cornet; J. D. Polard, 1st B flat cornet; Chas. Consins, 2d B flat cornet; Fred. Jacobs, 1st alto; James Stanaway, 2d alto; Chas. Harley, baritone; Sam. Stanaway, bass; Joseph Dingler, base drum; Harry Bowmer, snare drum.

NEW TIME CARD.—We are indebted to Mr. James T. Davis, clerk of the C. P., for one of the new time cards of that road, which goes into effect to day. The passenger train going west arrives at Reno at 11:40 P. M. and leaves at 12:05 A. M., arriving in San Francisco at 3.35 P. M. The passenger train going east leaves San Francisco at 8 A. M., arriving in Reno at 2:30 A. M., and leaves Reno at 2:50 A. M.

HIS FINE.—Judge Gilson fined Joe. Leonard, who pleaded guilty to selling liquor to Indians, twenty-five dollars and costs—in all, about $75.

PEAVING MINING SUMMARY.—The news from Peavine is satisfactory, if not exciting. All of the mining companies are actively pushing ahead work, having an abiding faith that there is a silver lining to every cloud. None are discouraged, but delve away as if they were almost on the bonanza. Below we give such information as we have been able to collate respecting the condition of the mines:

Consolidated Pee.
The work of extending the line up to the top of the hill, and erecting the chimney for the O'Hara champion furnace, is progressing rapidly; in the meantime the castings and iron frame work on the furnace and smelter is pushed ahead so that it will be ready by May 1st. The different ore breasts in the mine are all looking well, and ore is being constantly hoisted for the mill. The ground for the new hoisting machinery is all graded.

Golden Fleece.
Breaking through the large shaft on this claim to the surface, is getting along finely. Their machinery will consist of a double-acting engine, pump, etc., and will soon be on hand, to be erected on this shaft; then the incline will be sunk down about 500 feet further, where the most valuable ore will be taken out.

Mineral Chief.
Sinking the shaft progresses: several feeders of quartz have been struck in descending the shaft. Water is coming in just in the direction the ledge pitches. It is generally conceded that this claim has the Golden Fleece ledge.

Nevada State.
This company have been doing considerable dead work lately, but are now in a character of work which indicates a near approach to the ledge. They propose to fight it out if it takes all Summer.

Curt Tunnel.
The work of driving this tunnel ahead still goes on. The tunnel is now in a distance of 280 feet, and a contract has been let for another hundred feet. The face of the drift is in block rock, but of a more favorable character than any heretofore encountered.

Buckeye.
An incline is being run by this company. Only one man is kept at work.

Cable Conduit Laid.
Work on this claim is being prosecuted as usual, with no change of interest to report.

Mountain View.
The claim is on the north side of the main Peavine Mountain. This company have a fine six-foot ledge, much of which is high grade ore, as saying up into the hundreds. Work is being vigorously prosecuted on this claim. They are now on their ledge a distance of forty feet, and will commence shipping their high grade ore in a few days.

New York Tunnel.
This tunnel is now in 500 feet and the owners purpose running on, as the indications are favorable for finding the Paymaster ledge.

MEASLES.—A great number of Reno children are down with this illness. Among them are Nels. Hammond's little girl, Dick Smith's girl, Mr. Boerner's boy, two of the Steiner children, Mr. Gallings' little girl, and several others, whose names we do not now call to mind.

MANUFACTORIES.—There is no finer place in the State for manufactories of all kinds than Reno, and those who have capital lying idle will do well to invest it here and receive a rich reward. Our natural resources speak for themselves.

IMPROVEMENT.—Virginia street presents a much better appearance, since the rocks have been cleaned up and taken away. Property owners on other streets ought to follow the example that has been set.

FOUR.—This represents the number of prisoners in our county jail.

THE CELEBRATION TO-MORROW.—The fifty-seventh anniversary of the introduction of Old Fellowship into the United States will be appropriately celebrated by the lodges an encampment of R. M. by a grand procession, oration, etc., during the day, and a ball at night. The procession will form at 11 o'clock, at Old Fellows' Hall, right resting on Second street, under charge of Grand Marshal, J. H. Kinkead, and Aids—C. H. Stoddard, D. C. Martin and J. V. Peers. The column will move by the following route: Up Second to Center, north on Center to Commercial Row, west on Commercial Row to Virginia street, south on Virginia street to Second, west on Second to West street, north on West to Fourth, east on Fourth to Sierra, south on Sierra to Plaza, east on Plaza to Dyer's Hall, where the following exercises will take place under the direction of the President of the Day, H. B. Cassitt; Prayer; Song by the Choir; Remarks by the President, H. B. Cassitt; Music. Reno Brass Band; Poem by R. H. Taylor, C. C. Powning, reader; Song by the Choir; Oration, W. M. Boardman; Music, Reno Brass Band. The column will then re-form and march to Old Fellows' Hall, where it will be dismissed. Dyer's Hall has been beautifully decorated for the occasion. The ball at night promises to eclipse anything we have had for a long time in the Terpsichorean line. The best of music has been engaged and a jolly good time is in store for those who delight to trip the light fantastic.

CURIOSITY.—Samuel Welch, around at the Woodcock Restaurant, has one of the most valuable curiosities that we have seen for many a day, not valuable for its worth in money, but association. He has a copy of the Ulster Co. Gazette, published in Kingston, Ulster county New York, and dated January 4th, 1800. It was published by Samuel Freer & Son. Sam has it framed and hung up near the door. It is in mourning and the whole paper, nearly, is devoted to the news of the death of Washington. As a typographical specimen it is not what might be called a model, but still it is well printed, and displays some taste. The mourning rules are very wide and give the paper a very doleful appearance. Sam bought the paper when a boy (several years ago now) and brought it with him when he came to this Coast in 1849; He values it very highly, and says he would not sell it for $500. We would not either were we its possessor. It is of particular interest now as it is so near the Centennial. Go and look at it, it is well worth an inspection.

DON'T BELIEVE IT.—The insinuation that the business men of Reno are narrow and illiberal in their business views, and that they do business in a loose manner as to cause customers to pay a larger per cent. profit than the people of other places pay, can not be substantiated by the figures. Everything sold in this market can be purchased of our merchants upon as advantageous terms as the same class of goods sell for in places west of the Sierra.

IS IT SO?—It is wickedly stated that spelling matches are very apt to result in matches of another and very different character, and it is slanderously stated that the young ladies care more about flirting with the gentlemen than fathoming the rules of orthography.

DISTRICT COURT.—This tribunal will be in session again on the 28th. After this term shall have expired, we shall have no court again until September.

DELINQUENT SALE.—We publish in this issue the delinquent sale notice of the Cleopatra Gold and Silver Mining Company.

HOLIDAY.—The public schools will close to-morrow, to give the children an opportunity to see the procession.

WALKER, KNUST & CO. are now receiving one of the largest and most complete stock of groceries that has ever arrived in Reno. Splendid inducements are offered to purchasers. Those in want of articles in the grocery line will find it to their advantage to call on Walker, Knust & Co. before purchasing elsewhere.

M. Nathan has certainly one of the finest stocks of clothing ever seen this side of the Sierras. All of the latest styles of hats and Summer suits can be found at this store, and they are sold at a small advance on San Francisco prices.

At the Reno market can be found the finest supply of all kinds of meat ever seen in Reno. Messrs. Rhine & Schaffer understand what the people want, and I propose to give it to them.

SIMMONS is prepared to supply everybody and their families with choice family groceries, fruit, vegetables, wild game, fish, and other luxuries, at prices to suit the times.

CROP PROSPECTS.—In conversation with several of our leading ranchers, they give as their opinion that the crops this year will be as good as any we have had. At the present time the grass is looking as well as they could wish for. They fear, however, that if the present warm weather continues, there will be a scarcity of water for irrigating purposes, but not sufficient to do any material damage.

TANNERY.—The Reno tannery will be in full blast in a short time. Mr. Hatch is deserving of success for his efforts in this direction, and we trust a full measure will be meted out to him.

PLUMMER.—We never tire of hearing C. B. Plummer. No matter how often we hear him, we like to go again. His entertainment at the M. E. Church last evening was praised by all. Plummer is a "good lugin."

BUILDING.—The building mania rages. In our perambulations Saturday around town, we counted over fifteen buildings in course of construction. Reno is doing first rate.

OUR SUNDAYS.—Franktown is reported lively, and Verdi the same. Wadsworth holds its own, but Washoe is awful dull. Poe City is awakening, and Glendale is quiet.

COMING.—Ex-Governor Cook, Congressman Garfield and Henry Hart, General Manager of the Pacific Mail, will pass through Reno this coming week from the East.

Don't forget that Samuel Welch will have lots of good grub on hand at the Woodcock Restaurant on the night of the dance. He sets splendid meals.

SUBSCRIBERS TO THE JOURNAL who do not receive their paper regularly, will confer a favor by reporting to this office.

Now that the trains are running as usual, we have our regular supply of emigrants. Two trains went through yesterday.

RETURNED.—Mr. Jake Enkle has returned from San Francisco and deserves great credit in the manner in which he refitted his rooms. He has now the most elegant shop in the State. Jake is now running three chairs, being reinforced by Henry Morris and brother. Everybody knows Henry for he is the pioneer artist of the Coast, and between the three first class artists, no one will have any occasion to wait long, or to go away dissatisfied. His excellent hair dressing, the I. X. L., will always be found on hand.

MILLINERY AND FANCY GOODS.—Mrs. Julia J. Prescott is pleased to inform her friends and customers that she has just returned from San Francisco after having selected the most complete, fashionable and elegant stock of Spring and Summer millinery and fancy goods for this market and which she has now displayed at her establishment at No. 20 Commercial Row. pany, a corporation, has by its Superintendent
Jas. Morgan, whose postoffice address is at
